MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS

(Railway Board)

New Delhi, the 24th July 1963

G.S.R. 1283.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 47 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890), read with the notification of the Government of India in the late Department of Commerce and Industry No. 801, dated the 24th March, 1963, the Railway Board, with the sanction of the Central Government, hereby makes the following rules further to amend the General Rules for all open Lines of Railways in India administered by the Government, published with the notification of the Government of India, in the late Railway Department (Railway Board) No. 1078-T, dated the 9th March, 1929, namely:—

In part I of the said rules,—

(1) for sub-clause (a) (ii) of clause (38A) of rule 1, the following sub-clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(ii) between the ‘block section limit board’ where provided, and the last Stop signal of the station in either direction;”;

(2) for the Note below rule 7A, the following Note shall be substituted, namely:—

“NOTE.—The indications of the Colour Light Stop signals both by day and by night shall be the same as the night indications of Semaphore signals described above. Manually operated multiple-aspect Colour Light Stop signals may display ‘Attention’ aspect by showing two yellow lights, one below the other, signifying “Proceed and be prepared to pass the next Stop signal at a restricted speed.”;

(3) after rule 10A, the following Note shall be inserted, namely:—

“NOTE.—Manually operated multiple-aspect Colour Light Stop signals may display ‘Attention’ aspect by showing two yellow lights, one below the other, signifying “Proceed and be prepared to pass the next Stop signal at restricted speed.”;

(4) for clause (b) of rule 30A, the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(b) On a double line worked on Absolute Block System, at a station where there are no points, or where the outermost points at the approaching end are trailing, a 'block section limit board' shall be provided at a distance of not less than 600 feet (180 metres) in advance of the Home signal and it shall protect the fouling mark of the outermost trailing points, if any.

NOTE.—A 'block section limit board' is a board which demarcates the block section at stations where the outermost points are not facing, or where there are no points.”;

(5) in rule 82, for clauses (a) and (b) the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

“(a) If there is no Fixed signal at a place where a Fixed signal is ordinarily shown, or if a Fixed signal is imperfectly shown, or if the light of a Fixed signal is not burning when it should, the Driver shall act as if the signal were showing its most restrictive aspect:

Provided that during night, in the case of a Semaphore Stop signal for approaching trains only, if the Driver finds the signal light extinguished, he shall bring his train to a stand at such signal. If he finds that the day indication of such signal is clearly visible and is satisfied that the signal is in the “off” position, he shall proceed past it cautiously, at a restricted speed which shall in no case exceed 10 mles (15 Kilometres) per hour, up to the next Station, obeying the intervening Stop signals, if any, relating to him. He shall report the matter to the Station Master and obtain the latter's acknowledgment. Before proceeding past such Stop signal, the Driver shall sound his whistle to apprise the Guard of that fact and exchange signals with him.

(b) When approaching a station the exhibition of a red over green light, or the corresponding position of the arms by day, shows that the signal is out of order and shall be treated as if the signal were showing its most restrictive aspect.”;

(6) for rule 127, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“127. Assistance from Guard's hand-brake.—When the Driver requires the assistance of Guard's hand-brake, he shall give three short sharp whistles, if necessary, repeatedly, or, if a brake whistle is provided, sound such whistle.”;

(7) in clause (a) of rule 128, for the words, “three or more short whistles” the words “three short, sharp whistles” shall be substituted;

(8) in rules 248A, 249A and 250A, for the words, “where there are no facing points”, wherever they occur, the words, “where provided” shall be substituted.

MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING

New Delhi, the 22nd July 1963

G.S.R. 1284.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules to amend the Films Division (Recruitment to Class III and Class IV Posts) Rules, 1959, published with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, No. G.S.R. 1090 dated the 21st September, 1959, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Films Division (Recruitment to Class III and Class IV Posts) Third Amendment Rules, 1963.

2. In the Schedule to the Films Division (Recruitment to Class III and Class IV Posts) Rules, 1959,—

(i) in column 12 against each of the Serial Numbers 34 and 35, for the existing entries the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“From amongst Upper Division Clerks who have passed the Departmental Examination prescribed in the Annexure.”

(ii) in column 12 against Serial Number 36, for the first two sentences of the existing entry, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“From amongst Upper Division Clerks in the Films Division who have passed the Departmental Examination prescribed in the Annexure. Till such time as eligible candidates become available, the posts may be filled on transfer from Accounts/Audit Offices.”

(iii) the following shall be added at the end, namely:—

ANNEXURE

Departmental examination for promotion to the posts of Accountant, Head Clerk and Technical Assistant in the Films Division

1. The instructions contained in this annexure apply to all posts of Accountant, Head Clerk and Technical Assistant in the Films Division and its branch offices.

2. No person who has not passed the departmental examination prescribed in para. 10 below will in future be eligible for regular appointment as Accountant, Head Clerk or Technical Assistant.

3. (i) Appointments made to the posts of Accountant and Head Clerk after 21st September 1959 are provisional and these posts will be filled on the result of the examination and the present incumbents will have to revert.

(ii) Persons who were appointed to the posts of Accountant or Head Clerk prior to 21st September 1959 and to the posts of Technical Assistant prior to 19th October 1962 will also have to pass in any of the first three examinations held, otherwise they will also be reverted and replaced by those who pass the examination.

(iii) Provided that such persons as were holding a post of Accountant, Head Clerk or Technical Assistant on 21st September 1959 or 19th October 1962 respectively and had put in either 5 years' service in that grade or were 45 years' of age on the respective date will be exempted from the departmental examination prescribed in para. 10 below.

4. An Upper Division Clerk who has put in more than 3 years' service in the grade will be eligible to take the examination, provided his period of probation has been terminated.

5. Permission of the Administrative Officer will be necessary for a candidate to appear for the examination. The candidate who wishes to appear for the examination should apply to him within 15 days of the announcement for holding the examination with his/her particulars and also indicating the result of previous examinations, if any, for admittance to the examination. The essential condition for admission to the examination shall be that the candidate, if he/she qualifies at the examination, is likely to discharge efficiently all the duties of Accountant, Head Clerk or Technical Assistant. The criteria that will be applied to determine the suitability will be (1) regularity in attendance, (2) energy, (3) good moral character and business like habits, (4) reasonable prospect of passing the examination etc.

6. The departmental examination will be held every year (subject to para. 14 below) by the Administrative Officer, Films Division at Bombay. The dates will be notified by him every-time.

7. A waiting list of all the candidates who are successful in the examination shall be kept by the Administrative Officer, Films Division. Names of the successful candidates will be entered in the list in the order of the positions obtained at the examination and regular vacancies of Accountant, Head Clerk and Technical Assistant, when they arise, would be offered to them in the same order. A separate list will be maintained in respect of those persons who are required simply to qualify at the examination for continuance in the existing posts.

8. Names of candidates who pass at a later examination will be entered in the waiting list after those who had passed in the earlier examination. The order of merit will be with relation to each examination only. Thus the person who passes in the earlier examination will be appointed earlier than any person who passes in the later examination irrespective of the position obtained in the examination.

9. The question papers will be set and valued by different officers selected by the Administrative Officer and the names of the officers will be kept confidential.

10. There will be 4 written papers for the examination besides the interview and evaluation of service records. The subjects of examination, the time allowed, the maximum and qualifying marks for each paper will be as follows:—

Subject	Time allowed	Maximum Marks	Qualifying Marks
1. Noting, drafting, Precis writing and Manual of Office Procedure	3 hours	100	50
2. Films Division Manual	3 hours	100	50
3. Service, accounts and other rules	3 hours	100	50
4. Elementary Book-keeping	3 hours	100	50
5. Interview and evaluation of service records (by the Departmental Promotion Committee)	200	120

NOTE (1).—Papers in subjects 2 to 4 may be answered with books. The names of books, the use of which is permitted for each of these papers will be mentioned in the question paper itself by the Officer who sets the paper; use of other books will be prohibited at the examination. The names of books to be allowed for each paper will be announced to the candidates 3 months in advance. The books used in the examination hall shall be examined by the Presiding Officer to see that these do not contain any forbidden matter.

NOTE (2).—The syllabus for subject 3 will be as follows:—

- (i) Fundamental Rules—Chapters I, II, III and XI and Liberalised Leave Rules.
- (ii) Supplementary Rules—2, 5 to 8, 22 to 78, 89, 114 to 126 and 195.
- (iii) C.C.S. (C.C.A.) Rules, 1957.
- (iv) Liberalised Pension Rules, 1950.

- (v) Central Government Compilation of Treasury Rules, Vol. I—Parts I to IV, Part V (Chapter I to V and VII) and Part VII (Chapter VII, Section I).
- (vi) Central Government Compilation of the General Financial Rules (Revised and Enlarged), 1963.
- (vii) Delegation of Financial Powers Rules, 1958.
- (viii) C.C.S. (Conduct) Rules, 1955.
- (ix) C.S.S. (Temporary Service) Rules, 1949.
- (x) Provident Fund Rules.

NOTE (3).—The syllabus for subject 4 will comprise of Chapters I to III, V and IX—XII of 'Double Entry Book-keeping', Fourteenth Edition by Jamshed R. Batliboi, viz.,

Chapter I—Elementary of Double Entry.

Chapter II—Rules for Journalising.

Chapter III—Ledger Accounts.

Chapter V—The Cash Book.

Chapter IX—The Trial Balance.

Chapter X—The Trading Account.

Chapter XI—The Profit & Loss Account.

Chapter XII—The Balance Sheet.

NOTE (4).—A candidate who obtains 75% marks in a paper shall be exempt from appearing for the examination in that paper in his subsequent attempts. For the purpose of para. 8 he/she will, however, be treated to have qualified at the examination only in the year in which he/she passes the remaining papers.

11. No candidate may ordinarily be given more than 3 chances to appear for the examination. Further chances may however be granted by the Appointing Authority in exceptional cases for reasons to be recorded in writing.

12. Candidates from outstations coming to Bombay to appear for the examination may be granted travelling allowance under Supplementary Rule 132 in respect of their journeys for the first and second attempts only.

13. Candidates will have to bring their identity cards with them to the examination hall. Those failing to do so may not be admitted and may lose the chance.

14. When the number of candidates taking the examination is less than 5, the examination may not be held that year."
